

OCCUPATIONAL NOISE

INTRODUCTION

This course aims to provide participants with an awareness of the legal duties regarding noise and the potential damage that can be caused to hearing from exposure to high levels of noise.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Directors, Managers, Safety Representatives and Employees.

COURSE DURATION

PFA Consulting offer this course over half a day.

COURSE OVERVIEW

Subjects covered in this course include:

- What is noise?
- How do we measure it?
- The use of noise measuring equipment
- Do we need to measure it?
- The new HSE Guidance
- Personal daily noise exposure

On completion of the course, delegates will:

- Understand the main requirements of the Noise at Work Regulations 2005
- Understand their company's responsibilities under the new regulations
- Have some knowledge of basic, simple noise reduction techniques
- Describe the effects of high level of noise on hearing
- Understand and list the reasons for the provision and use of personal protective equipment (PPE) in noisy environments

PFA Consulting has a rolling schedule for Health and Safety courses. For further details on this course or to arrange a meeting to discuss your requirements:

- Call our training co-ordinator on 01793 828000
- Email us on training@pfapl.com